This is the basement in front of the house it also gets water there as well

Upstairs ceiling in hallway

Upstairs hallway cracks in the wall

South side of the house bedroom one water damaged to the ceiling

The Sheds damaged by animals

This is the other shed the animals ate through the floor

This is my backyard. Please zoom in this is what I see from the inside of my house and outside of my house. This is what I was saying the other day nobody will buy my house with that view they said it looked like a junkyard or a landfilled
